

BY-LAW ARTICLE XXXIV

Tennis

Boys and Girls

Sect. 1: Tennis shall be administered by the NHIAA Tennis Committee and the rules governing play shall be those adopted by the committee per the Tennis Policies and Procedures Manual.

Sect. 2: The NHIAA Tennis Committee shall select sites, dates, and format for the state tennis tournament. Only member schools of the NHIAA will be permitted to enter either teams or individuals.

Sect. 3: Awards

Official NHIAA championship and runner-up plaques, and 12 team medals will be awarded to the respective champion and runner-up teams in each division for boys and girls. A gold medal will be presented to the singles champion; a silver medal to the runner-up for boys and girls. Gold medals will be presented to the doubles winners; silver to the runners-up for boys and girls.

Sect. 4: A regular season interschool match shall be six (6) singles and three (3) doubles. Points will be awarded accordingly.

Sect. 5: Divisional Alignment

Boy's and girl's tennis shall be aligned into three (3) divisions based upon enrollments and petitions subject to the approval of the Classification Committee.
